ANNOUNCEMENTS

FACULTY AND STAFF

Following the retirement of Dr. Emily H. Dutton, Dean of the College for the past sixteen years, Sweet Briar is welcoming a new Dean to the campus this year. Dr. Mary Ely Lyman, of New York, will assume the duties of that post early in September. A graduate of Mount Holyoke College, Dr. Lyman took the B.D. degree from the Union Theological Seminary in New York, and the Ph.D. degree from the University of Chicago. Religion is her special field, and from 1920 to 1926 she was Frederick Weyerhauser Professor of Biblical Literature at Vassar College. In recent years she has served as Lecturer in English Bible on the staff of the Union Theological Seminary and as Associate in Religion at Barnard College.

Dr. Lyman's educational and religious interests have been international in scope. She studied at Cambridge University in England, has travelled widely in Europe and the Near East, served as a delegate to the World Student Christian Federation in England and the International Student Service in Germany in 1924, and in 1934 she was a visiting lecturer at the American School of Oriental Research in Jerusalem. She is also the author of numerous volumes on religious subjects.

Dr. Belle Boone Beard, head of the Department of Economics and Sociology, is returning to Sweet Briar this year after an absence of two years on leave, during the greater part of which she has served as head of city and county organization of the Virginia State Board of Public Welfare in Richmond. Dr. Helen K. Mull, associate professor of Philosophy, Psychology and Education, will also return to the campus after a year's sabbatical leave, which she has spent in research work.

Sabbatical leaves for the coming year have been granted to four members of the faculty, Dr. Gertrude Maltz, Dr. Elisabeth F. Moller, Dr. Carl Y. Connor and Mr. Salvatore C. Mangiafico. Dr. Connor and Mr. Mangiafico will be absent for the second semester only and their substitutes will be announced later.

In the absence of Dr. Maltz, Dr. Marion Tait has been secured. Dr. Tait holds her B.A. and M.A. degrees from Toronto University, and her Ph.D. degree from Bryn Mawr College, where she taught last year. Dr. Tait comes as instructor in Greek and Latin for 1940-1941. In Dr. Moller's absence, Dr. Cecile Finley will continue as instructor in Psychology for the first semester.

Mr. James E. Michael, instructor in English, has resigned to accept a position at Williams College, and in his place will come Miss Lisa Rauschenbusch, to take over the work in drama which he had. Miss Rauschenbusch is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Cornell University, where she received her bachelor's degree in drama. Miss Rauschenbusch has had extensive experience in play-writing, directing, and production. She studied at the American Laboratory Theatre under Richard Boleslawski and Mme. Maria Ouspenskaya; and was responsible for the inception and guidance of the National Broadcasting Company's "Theatre of the Air" program a few years ago.

Succeeding Miss Anne MacRae in the Biology Department is Miss Jane Belcher, formerly of the Department of Zoology of the University of Missouri. Miss Belcher is a B.S. graduate from Colby College, and holds her master's degree from Columbia University. Miss Belcher has been a graduate student and an assistant in the Department of Zoology at the University of Missouri for the past two years.

To fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Lois Wilcox, Mr. Jovan DeRocco has been secured as an Instructor in Art at Sweet Briar. Mr. DeRocco's early education and training was received in Yugoslavia at the University of Belgrad. He came to this country in 1921 where he pursued additional studies in planning and design. He practiced architecture for a five-year period, a part of which was devoted to work on the United States Embassy in Tokio. He has toured the museums of England, France, Italy and Spain; has studied at the Ecole des Beaux-Arts in Paris, at the Art Students League in New York, and held a fellowship at the MacDowell Colony in Peterborough, N. H., where he spent two summers. His paintings have been exhibited in the National Academy of Design, at the MacDowell Club in New York, and at the Art Students League. Mr. DeRocco has done much teaching of private pupils in his studio in New York. He is at present working on a book intended primarily for students of art, called Between Brush-Strokes. Mr. DeRocco held a World's Fair Commission in connection with the exhibit of the Yugoslav government, for which he was decorated by that government.

As an Instructor in Government, Dr. Turner C. Cameron of Alabama comes to handle the government offerings formerly taught by Dr. Joseph Develin. Dr. Cameron received his bachelor's degree from the University of Alabama, the master's degree from Louisiana State University, and his doctorate from Princeton University.

Two new instructors come into the Department of Physical Education this year by reason of the resignations of Miss King and Miss Alkire. Miss Margery Arnold of West Brighton, New York, comes to take up the work formerly carried by Miss King. Miss Arnold has her B.S. degree from Russell Sage College, and spent the past summer studying at the University of Wisconsin. She has had valuable teaching experience at St. Mary's Hall in Minnesota, at Berea College in Kentucky, and at the National Cathedral School in Washington. Miss Alma Boyden will have charge of the work in dancing, in particular, at Sweet Briar next year. Miss Boyden holds the B.S. degree from Massachusetts State College, and has studied the last two years at the Smith Vocational School. During the past year she taught classes in physical education there, while pursuing her studies.

During the summer Mr. J. R. Abbitt resigned as Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds to accept a post in Richmond, and to succeed him comes Mr. Dan Wickline of Lynchburg, Virginia. Mr. Wickline is a graduate of Virginia Polytechnic Institute in architectural engineering, and has had practical experience over a period of years with Craighill & Cardwell, architects, and with Wiley and Wilson, engineers, in Lynchburg. He began his duties at Sweet Briar in August.

To succeed Miss Donna Wills as nurse at the Infirmary, Miss Elizabeth Robertson of Lynchburg, has been secured. Miss Robertson is a graduate of Memorial Hospital in Lynchburg, and is well known at Sweet Briar, where she has done special duty from time to time for the past several years.

FORMER STUDENTS

All students who wish to change their schedules as made in May or who failed to register for classes at that time must reach the college not later than Thursday morning, September 19. Registration for classes will close at 12 noon Thursday, September 19, in order to allow time for the Committee on Registration to make necessary adjustments. After that time no changes may be made without the signed consent of the instructor and of the Dean. Attention is called to Faculty Rulings, 1, 3, page 51 of the Students' Handbook for 1940-1941.
